

It is intensely disturbing to me that Sinclair Broadcasting's has issued a mandate to force their stations to air a "Stolen Honor," a partisan commentary on John Kerry, days before the election.

It is an objectionable tactic by Sinclair to use the public airwaves for a political agenda. Sinclair Broadcasting Corp. must not be permitted to abuse the system. The FCC has an obligation to protect our airways from this blatant abuse of media power.